- b) Youthstream Group, Lda. (hereinafter referred to as Youthstream);
- c) Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme / Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme – Europe (hereinafter referred to as FIM/FIM Europe).

1. Involvement of parties

- a) YME sets the structure and rules for the YZ125 BLU cRU Cup (hereinafter referred to as "Cup"), is the entity responsible for managing the marketing and promotional rights of the Cup and is the entity in charge of the interaction between the stakeholders involved in this project;
- b) The national distributors of YME are in charge of local communication and direct contact with the riders, providing them with the BLU cRU welcome pack and sticker kit on behalf of YME;
- c) Youthstream is the entity which manages the television rights for the Cup and is also in charge of organizing the Cup Superfinale which will happen on 30 September 2018 at Imola, Italy and will be part of the last round of the MXGP Championship. Youthstream is the stakeholder which establishes direct contact with FIM/FIM EUROPE regarding the Superfinale;
- d) The Superfinale event is under FIM/FIM EUROPE European Sportive and Technical regulations. As a result all participating riders must have either a continental annual or one-event license. These can be sourced at the FIM extranet.

2. Structure of the Cup

- a) Subscriptions
Subscription for participation in the Cup is possible from 2nd November 2017 until 28th February 2018;
- b) National Championships
This Cup will be an integrated part of the national championships, in which the Yamaha riders will have their own ranking, which will be locked by 10 September 2018 for the selection of riders joining the Superfinale;
- c) Superfinale in Imola (Italy)
The best riders of each national championship will race in a Superfinale which will happen on 30 September 2018 at Imola, Italy and will be part of the last round of the MXGP Championship;
- d) Superfinale Podium ceremony
The first 3 riders in the overall standing will be rewarded with the following prizes:
1° Cup/Plate/FIM-Europe Medal + 3 pass paddock MotoGP *
2° Cup/Plate/FIM-Europe Medal + 3 pass paddock WorldSBK *
3° Cup/Plate/FIM-Europe Medal + 3 pass paddock MXGP *
*valid for the 2019 racing season, Travel/Accommodation expenses are at the riders responsibility;
A YME Distributor Award will be given based on the national Distributor showing the most proactivity in terms of: contact, registrations, sportive info, media info and presence on the field;
A Youngest Rider award will be given to the youngest rider on the Superfinale starting grid.
- e) BLU cRU Masterclass
The top three riders, plus two wild cards chosen by the YME Racing committee and BLU cRU ambassador jury, from the Superfinale at the last MXGP Championship round in Imola (Italy), will then participate in an YME managed Masterclass with experienced BLU cRU Racing ambassadors;
- f) EMX 125 2019 ride
The best rider of the Masterclass chosen by the YME Racing committee and BLU cRU ambassadors will be the 2018 YZ125 BLU cRU Cup winner, and will join a Yamaha official EMX125 team as an official rider for the 2019 season.
